AN INTRODUCTION

Bobbi was a teacher for twenty years and a school counselor for fourteen. She also holds teaching certifications for mathematics and substance abuse counseling. After retiring, Bobbi was a Certified Life Coach for ten years and a Certified Clinical Hypnotherapist for five. She is a Reiki Master, has recorded relaxation and healing meditations, and authored a book on counseling middle schoolers.

Once her husband Jack needed daily care, she took that on exclusively. She now writes for her blog called Tales from the Bobbi Lama. Bobbi and Jack met in college in 1967 and were married in 1969. They had two daughters and now have six grandchildren. Bobbi's passion has been to help people find peace and joy, so after Jack passed, she decided to continue to give hope and comfort to others by sharing their phenomenal connection across the veil.

BOOK SUMMARY

Bobbi Rise has a story to tell. So does her late husband, Jack. Imagine your late husband sending you signs, signals, and messages, all bursting with his personality and wit? That is exactly what happened to Bobbi, beginning right after Jack's passing. Thinking at first it was just coincidence, it was not long before the evidence became overwhelming, and their "conversations" grew.

Bobbi's discovery shows us that our loved ones are never truly gone. Through her experiences, we are taught to quiet the mind and receive our loved one's messages, discern our thoughts from theirs, and establish a whole new relationship with this all-encompassing love energy. Bobbi creates a tapestry of stories and reflections, leading us to an undeniable understanding of love and connection after passing. You Don't Know Jack! is a beautiful love story that gives evidence our consciousness is eternal.
